

A BCIS SYMPOSIUM

BUFFET SUPPER ON SITE

A Visit to the Far East – Fusion Cuisine

WHICH ANTI-PLATELET REGIMEN FOR WHICH PATIENT? STRATEGIES MADE SIMPLE

Wednesday 27 January 2010 - 18:30 until 21:00 hours

Thames Suite, East Wing, London Hilton Metropole Hotel

CHAIRS: Professor Tony Gershlick and Professor Keith Fox

18:30	Drinks Reception and Far Eastern Fusion Cuisine Buffet Supper
19:00	Introduction	Tony Gershlick
19:05	Near Patient Testing - Is it worth the effort?	Alison Goodall
19:17	Tailoring the treatment to the patient's response: that must be the way forward	Nick Curzen
19:27	Panel Discussion
19:42	The data is with Prasugrel - yet, what is its role in ACS PCI?	James Cotton
19:52	But surely Ticagrelor has leapfrogged Prasugrel?	Rob Storey
20:02	Panel Discussion
20:17	How should we manage the potential bleeding issues in ACS?	Tony Gershlick
20:27	Sum up	Keith Fox
20:30	Further Far Eastern Fusion Cuisine

If you would like to attend this Satellite Symposium please let Millbrook know by either emailing ACI2010@millbrookconferences.co.uk or telephoning 01455 552559

The programme content is the responsibility of BCIS.

The symposium and hospitality has been supported by an educational grant from AstraZeneca